Delegates Pleased and Happy, Now That Long Convention Fight Is Over

WOODROW WILSON ---HIS LIFE AND WORK

sectional lines must and will be known; citizen of one part of the bloom; citizen of one part of the known; citizen of section part; and faction must tear and dissention distract a country which Pravidence would bless, but which man may curse."

It was thus that the young political philosopher, born and bred in the South and educated in the North, saw that the prospetity of ench section lies in the integrity of the whole.

It was thus that the young political lies in the integrity of the whole.

It was the prospetity of ench section lies in the integrity of the whole.

It was political part of the whole.

It was political in the foliation of the present and of the future will of the present and of the future will this intent he studied law for a little leas than two years (18:3-1880) at the University of Virginia, and then practiced law in Atlanta. Ga.; but after about two years he found that practiced law in Atlanta. Ga.; but after about two years he found that practiced law in Atlanta. Ga.; but after about two years he found that practice will have been with the law of the present and the country. Indicated for not giving about will be a will be the work of the present will be a will be a

PLATFORM ON WHICH DEMOCRATS WILL GO BEFORE THE COUNTRY

It has, among other achievements, revised the rules of the House of Representatives so as to give to the representatives of the American people freedom of speech and of action in advocating, proposing and perfecting

The movement towards more popular government should be promoted through legislation in each State which will permit the expression of the preference of the electors for national candidates at presidential primaries.

We direct that the National committee incorporate in the call for the next nominating convention a requirement that all expressions of preference for presidential andidates shall be given and the selection of delegates and alternates made through a primary election in each State law. Committeemen who are because the proposed of the Democratic National Committee be read authority of committeemen who are shereafter to constitute the membership of the Democratic National Committee and whose election is not provided for by law shall be chosen in each State at such primary elections, and the service and authority of committeemen, however chosen, shall begin immediately upon the receipt of their creditally upon the receipt of their credital receipts of the credital proposition of an animal contributions.

We please the Democratic Party to the enactment of a law prophibiting to an animal proposition of the contribution and the account of the contribution and the account of the contribution and the credital proposition of an animal prophibiting the contribution of the contribution and the credital proposition of the contribution and the credital proposition of the credital proposition of the contribution of the contribution o

(Continued on Tenth Page.)

CANDIDATE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

GOVERNOR THOMAS H. MARSHALL, OF INDIANA.